Exceptional Value in

Men's Suits-at $18.00.

There's a reason for everything. These Suits are the quality they are for $18 because we invariably share with you the economies of this workshop of ours. We know they'll compare with the $22.50 Suits you can find anywhere-they'll even discount many $25 grades.

It's all a matter of methods and facilities. We committed ourselves years ago to the policy of price moderation—and we didn't change that policy one iota when we broadened our opportunities through the means of Saks makemanship.

There you have the reason. And we want you to see the Suits. About twenty-two different styles-of English-cut, with the soft roll; buttoning high; following natural body lines—and the modified English, that are semi-body fitting—and the Conservative models. But conservatism doesn't mean characterless.

We've used Cheviots and Worsteds of exclusive pattern. Our skilled tailors have done the work on them as carefully and painstakingly as though they were $40 Suits.

We want to build your expectations higher than they have ever been before—because these $18 Suits warrant it.

Young Men's $15 Suits.

Again-there's a reason for our marked success in serving the Young Men. We design and make expressly for them. Select patterns appropriate to their tastes.

The $15.00 grade is a big one-and a popular one-because it offers such markedly strong values-and affords such a wide range of choice. Plain and Fancy Serges-Fancy Cheviots and Cassimereswith soft roll or permanent roll-all the fads of model-and MORE than the usual Tomorrow'll Be a Big Day in

The Boys' Shop.

Every Saturday is-but unusually so tomorrow because of the featured lots of Suits and Overcoats. We never stop trying to better our Boys' Clothing-both in fabric and workmanship. That you recognize us as leaders is only another reason for our striving the harder-and vou'll have choice tomorrow of the best we've ever succeeded in having produced.

STATEMENT UNDER OATH

Gives Investigating Committee Reasons for the Belief.

BLISS RECEIPTS DESTROYED

John D. Archbold Admits He Has No Record of Contribution

Made in 1904.

John D. Archbold, president of Standard Oil Company, recalled by the committee after making his charge in August that he had given $100,000 to the republican campaign fund of 1904, admitted yesterday afternoon that the receipt given by Cornelius N. Bliss for the sum had been destroyed by himself and H. H. Rogers, now dead. He said he had not been able to find even a book entry of the amount on the books of the Standard Oil Company. "I repeat that the money was paid," he said, "and was not refused; that it was paid by me to Mr. Bliss. I don't want any man to tell me it was not.

On the suggestion of Senator Pomerene the committee finally asked Mr. Archbold to have expert accountants search the books of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and its former associates to try to find the record of the $100,000 hav ing been paid out.

"May I raise the question of how important it is to find that entry?" asked Mr. Archbold. "There is no manner of question that the money was given.' "There is some question whether it was paid," returned Senator Pomerene, and there is a statement made that it was refunded. We want all the evidence we can

Chairman Hilles a Witness.

Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the nawas asked by Chairman Clapp if he gave 2 out a statement in August that the primary fight for Col. Roosevelt had "cost the harvester trust millions of dollars." "I assume the responsibility of it," he

His explanation was given to the committee in the form of a letter he had just written to George W. Perkins, who, with Senator Dixon, demanded that Mr. with Senator Dixon, demanded that Mr. Sele price, piece. ment. The letter expressed the opinion that Col. Roosevelt's "pre-convention to not less than $2,000,000."

committee, asserted that witnesses had dready testified to giving $667,000 for the Roosevelt campaign, and that expenses n different states and throughout the country would make the total he gave. Chairman Clapp questioned the witness sharply as to his information, and Mr. Hilles said it consisted of his general knowledge of what the Roosevelt workers had been doing, and his specific knowledge of what certain kinds of campaign

He gave the committee no new infornation regarding contributions to the of the contributors to the fund raised in Chicago, the total of which Representa-tive McKinley had included in his statement earlier in the week. These were: H. M. Bilsby, $1,000; George M. Reynolds, $500; Julius Rosenwald, $5,000; Max Pam, $2,500; J. A. Patton, $1,000; J. G. Shedd, $500; Henry Seigel, $500; J. E. Otis, $500; Max Hart, $250; A. G. Becker, $250; Fred S. James, $100.

Pays Foraker for Legal Services.

Mr. Archbold's identification of the various letters was followed by little questioning from the committee. He said the having been sent to Senator Foraker & had been for legal services in the state of Ohio; that he wrote to Senator M. A. Hanna to watch legislative affairs there because Mr. Hanna had been a lifelong friend, and that a contribution of $1,000 to Senator Quay had been entirely a political contribution, as had the twentyfive-thousand-dollar contribution to Sena-He did not know to whom Mr. Sibley had referred in the letter saying that a certain senator had requested a loan of $1,000, and asking if Mr. Archbold wanted "to make the investment." He said he did not send the $1,000, had no talk with Mr. Sibley about it and did not know to whom the statement related. Mr. Archbold presented four new letters that he had found as the result of a search of his files, the only ones, he said, 'that had escaped the thieves." One was rom President Roosevelt. "It is of little value, but I offer it as showing the friendly attitude of Mr. Roosevelt in 1904 at a period when he has indicated he considered me under the ban," said Mr. Archbold.
